Hi dear members and guests!

As you know, its spring time in Europe now and May is called the “Wonnemonat” (the blissful month).

May is also the perfect month to celebrate the person we all love from the beginning of our lives, our first friend, our best friend and our friend forever –

our MOTHER.

Mother’s Day has been last Sunday but you never can show your mum often enough how much you love her.

Come with your mum and the whole family and friends to celebrate Mother’s Day again with us.

Spoil your mum and come on down to our Great job!

Not bad for beginners!

Jenny gives instructions to her eager students who ended up playing an almost perfect rendition of "Edelweiss"

Maypole dancing is a tradition on May Day. It is believed to have started in Roman Britain around 2,000 years ago, when soldiers celebrated the arrival of spring by dancing around decorated trees thanking their goddess Flora. These days dancers weave ribbons around a pole rather than a tree.

The Maypole dance was almost definitely a fertility rite meant to symbolize the union of the masculine and feminine, which is a major theme in May Day celebrations across the historical Pagan footprint.

Die lustigen Holzhackerbaum!

The happy wood choppers

The story goes like that:
After a hard days work the wood choppers enjoy a beer with their mates!

Christa is not amused as the girls have to clean up after them and she asks Hans to help. The broom breaks in half and Hans happily returns to his mates for another beer.

But revenge is sweet: Christa fills Hans's hat with wood chips and hands it over to him.

And the moral of this story is:
Who laughs last, laughs best!!

Love to dance!

Don't Forget

Never miss a chance to dance - forget your troubles and dance - life is better when you dance - dance is a conversation between body and soul - dance is like dreaming with your feet - don't stop dancing because you grow old, you grow old because you stop dancing.

Age is strictly a case of mind over matter. If you don't mind, it doesn't matter.

Dear Sylvia and Uwe

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

It's not the years in your life that count. It's the life in your years.
