This newsletter will be mostly about our Mayfest on the 01.05.2016!
It has been one of the best ever and hopefully the photos bring back some happy memories
of a very enjoyable time at our club!

Lets start with the great entertainment
we had apart from our much loved Schneider Musikanten

Nev and Dorry in action

The entertainment started with our CHOIR the Singkreis who belted out some of their favourite May songs accompanied by our dear Nev who had a fulltime job. Nev wasn't only the one half of the Schneider Musikanten but guided us through the singing, dancing and cow bell ringing. What would we do without you Nev!

The Folk Dancers followed and amazed everyone with their skills.

What an amazing performance by our fantastic Folk Dancers !

Last but not least we had Jenny, Vikky and Karin with the cowbells. They call themselves the Singkreis Ding-a-lings ! I don't know who created the name but I like it.

First a bit of history:

Tuned cowbells or Almglocken (their German name), sometimes known by the English translation alpine bells (also Alpenglocken in German), typically refer to bulbous brass bells that are used to play music, sometimes as a novelty act or tourist attraction in the northern Alps, and sometimes in classical music, as in Richard Strauss's *Alpine Symphony.

Since they are tuned differently, in order to distinguish individual animals, they can be collected "from the pasture" in random tunings, but commercial sets in equal temperament are also available.

Jenny announced at the beginning that they are still LEARNERS, but weren't they great?

Their "Muß i' den" (Wooden Heart) and "Edelweiss" sounded pretty perfect to me!

But now more about the dancing:

Amongst other traditional dances we had as well the Hat dance and the Maypole dance:

I looooooooooove the hat dance!

Hats off to our new dancers Dale and Richard (I had to use this pun, didn't I!) You boys did a great job. It isn't as easy as it looks, believe me. But it can be very entertaining as well if something goes wrong! But nothing went wrong on the day! Well done!

The boys practicing!

At the moment I am working on a story about the history of the Stock Sport at our Club and I have to make sure everything is correct, before “I go public”.

Thank you Ingrid and everyone else for your contribution!

The best entertainment doesn't help if there is no audience.

But we had a fantastic crowd!

Some impressions below!
