What does dirndl mean in German?

Dirndl is a diminutive of Dirn(e). Although in current German usage, Dirne now generally signifies 'prostitute', the word originally meant only 'young woman'. In Bavaria and Austria, Dirndl can mean a young woman, a girlfriend or the dress.

Dirndl & Lederhosen Fest – 07/08/2022

The first round, just lifting the steins, proved to be too easy for our girls!

(Reuters) - A new world record has been set for carrying mugs of beer in southeastern Germany.

Second round: Lifting up high, without the help of the other hand.

We didn't break the world record, but Karen was the clear winner of the Women Stein Lifting Competition!

RECORD NEWS

In Bavaria, which is also home to Oktoberfest, the world's biggest beer festival, Oliver Struempfel cradled 31 beer-filled tankards stacked up in two tiers, walked 40 meters and then set them down.

But two tipped over at the last minute, so that the record is 29 jugs, or more than 69 kg (152 lb) of beer and glass.

Well done girls!
