Land der Berge, Land am Strome

National anthem

Land der Berge, Land am Strome,
 Land der Äcker, Land der Dome,
 Land der Hämmer zukunftsreich!
 Heimat großer Töchter und Söhne,
 Volk begnadet für das Schöne,
 Vielgerühmtes Österreich,
 Vielgerühmtes Österreich!

Land of mountains, land by the river,
 Land of fields, land of cathedrals,
 Land of hammers, with a promising future!
 Home to great daughters and sons,
 People highly gifted for beautiful arts,

The national anthem of Austria, also known by its incipit "Land der Berge, Land am Strome", was adopted in 1946. The melody, originally attributed to Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart but now disputed among various composers, was matched with a text by Paula von Preradović the following year.

What is the traditional Austrian garb?

Women wear 'Dirndls', a close-fitting bodice combined with an apron in different colors; either it is sleeveless and worn with a cotton and lace blouse, or it has sleeves and a high neck. Men wear 'Lederhosen', knee-length trousers or short-pants made from leather, worn with rustic shoes and wool socks.

"There are shortcuts to happiness, and dancing is one of them."

"You don't stop dancing because you grow old, you grow old because you stop dancing."

just Dance...

YEAH!

Austrian National Day – 15/10/2023

Everyone's favourite (or mostly the girls favourite) is DAS FLIEGERLIED!

The lyrics are fun and it's the song that gets everyone up dancing, but the best part is the dance moves that go with it. It involves arm motions, jumping, swimming and swapping places with friends or strangers.
