If you were looking out for the smiling face of Sibylle at the reception or wanted to have a chat with Hans behind the bar, you searched for them in vain. The lucky two are on holiday in Hong Kong and Austria until October.

Our much treasured volunteers Steve and Nick behind the bar and Barbara and Ruth at the reception will make sure, you are feeling welcomed and looked after until they are back.

Our Stock Sport players had to say good bye to one of their long-time players.
Manfred Famler and his wife Eveline moved back to Sydney in June after 16 years on the Gold Coast to be closer to their family.
I had a chat with Manfred and when he talked about his grandchildren his eyes were shining.
All the best from all of us Manfred and Eveline.
We hope you come back to the Gold Coast to visit us from time to time.

Our Team Captain Helmuth has been sick for weeks and even had to spend one week in hospital.

We wish you a speedy recovery Helmuth!
The players and all at the club are missing you and Rita!

See you soon!!!!
