PICCOLLAGE

Playing the Bells

By Jennifer Horsburgh

For me this began at the long-gone Bavarian Steakhouse at the corner of Cavill Avenue and the Gold Coast Highway, Surfers Paradise. Six nights a week the Kalendar Band sang and played and put on a fantastic cabaret show of jokes, Schuhplattler and bell ringing. They were superbly talented and extremely popular.

But every year they went overseas for 6 weeks and my husband, Mo and I were the replacement band - yes, just the two of us! My husband had played "Bierkellers" and worked in cabarets for many years on cruise ships and had been a professional entertainer and musician all his life. He had an excellent rapport with the audience wherever he entertained, but we wanted to provide a show as well. So we bought a set of bells in Stubaital, Austria and I practised and practised! From then on each year we played and sang and rang and joked very successfully. When I joined the choir, the Singkreis last year, several people asked me if we could start up a bell ringing group for the club. Not having played for many years I had a lot of practicing to do again, as you can imagine! I have now been joined by Vikki, Karin, and Reni. We play some lovely tunes together and I hope you will come and hear us when we perform with our choir, the Singkreis and our Folk dancers at our Clubhouse for the Springfest on the 4th September. See you there!

Jenny.

Young talent! Maybe one of our future bell ringers??

That's how we train our young talents. Mum Andy shows Thorbjorn how to do it!

Thorbjorn (which is a Swedisch name and means thunder) is keen to practise!

Very good for a beginner!

And, as you can see, Thorbjorn just loves it. He is a natural!!

Still no idea what I am talking about?

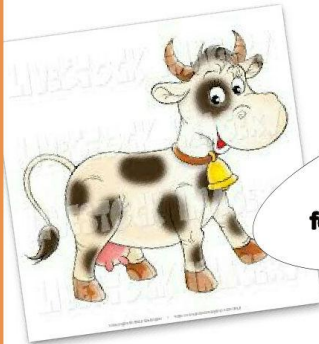

Wait till Sunday and you will see

Thorbjorn believes, that now he deserves a piece of cake!!!

He did well, didn't he! Clever little boy! It was "a piece of cake" for him!

.... when Jenny, Karin and Vikki will show you their skills!
