Hi dear members and guests!

Wow – what a great Daffodil Day Luncheon
we had! There were yellow outfits everywhere – and hats and even a yellow feather boa!
Yellow, the colour of sunshine,
hope, and happiness dominated, sprinkled with some Red, the colour of love!
What a combination

Thank you everybody – you rock

Spring is in the Air!!!

Come and help us celebrating the beginning of

Spring at our Springfest Luncheon

this Sunday! Be entertained by our Schneider Musikanten,

listen to our very own choir

The SINGKREIS

and watch our fabulous Bell Ringers

Our stall at the 10th International Café, organized by the Multicultural Communities Council Gold Coast MCCGC as part of QLD Seniors Week

A great opportunity for us, to show the Gold Coast that we exist and what we do.

Thank you to all our enthusiastic volunteers and performers!

25 August 2017

And we have been on the 7 Gold Coast News!!! They called us “the Austrian choir, a group of locals with the vocals”

Ruth our MC introduced us to the audience.

A day full of excitement and fun!

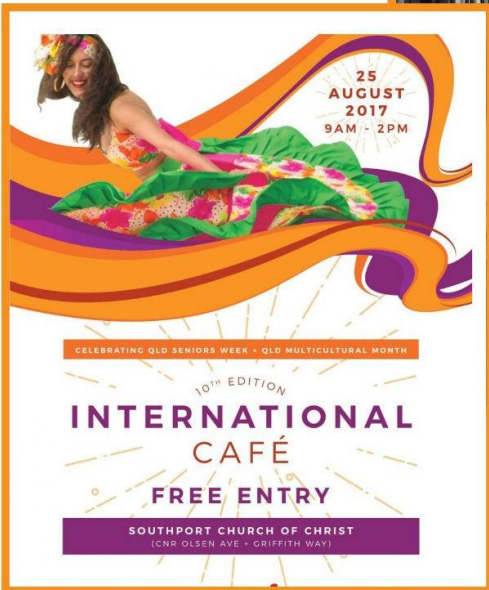

“Gold Coast seniors celebrate diversity with a day of music, food and festivities”
... and our STOCK SPORT!

Beautiful traditional costumes from around the world!

“The International Café highlights cultural diversity within the community as well as the valuable contribution of seniors”

Councillor Dawn Crichlow OAM, Division 6, visited our information stall and even showed interest in our Stock Sport.
